March Madness Hits Big In Maryland With New Serial Killer Title By David L. – CHALK OUTLINE CONFESSIONS!

Long-Awaited follow-up To OVER YOUR DEAD BODY Fails To Disappoint Fans

New Release: March 2008 – CHALK OUTLINE CONFESSIONS (Total Package Publications, 2008, ISBN 978-09789276-1-5) by David L. is another psychological thriller that captivates the reading audience from page one to the ending credits in the back of the book. Witness each murder firsthand as the main character's wit and cunning continue to develop with each death while simultaneously coping with her obsessive compulsive disorder. Even the trusted psychiatrist is nothing more than a helpless pawn in the overall quest for notoriety.

“We all read and hear about all of the serial killers terrorizing the nation, however, how many of them are women? Or live right in your own backyard? I wanted to bring that to light and show the world my perspective on what defines a serial killer,” quotes David L. In my new fiction novel, CHALK OUTLINE CONFESSIONS, I wanted readers to envision their life with that person living right next door to them.”

Francine Styles is a scorned woman with a vengeance after learning that her husband has been brutally murdered at the hands of his male lover that he has been having an extramarital affair with. Now Francine is on a mission to end the lives of men that lead a similar double life. A life their partners are unaware of. Local law enforcement and FBI are hot on this serial killer's trail; however, she continues to elude them with preciseness and intellect. Similar to the fabled black widow spider, this woman seduces her victims, before killing them in cold blood!

“Similar to my previous fictional work, nobody knows what transpires in the minds of others that are out for revenge towards those they feel wronged them,” said David L. “CHALK OUTLINE CONFESSIONS cleverly depicts how tragedy and loss can be manipulated into retribution and revenge.”

David L. is the author of numerous published articles in various media outlets as well as fiction novels. He works with various at-risk populations and readily available for speaking engagements in the community. Additionally, he holds a Bachelors Degree in Communications and Human Relations, as well as a Masters Degree in Clinical Social Work Administration from Fordham University.
